Noticed along the way

A wheelbarrow often serves other pupes — A friend of the paper who lives south of town says he gets a fair idea of how much rain falls in any storm by taking a look in his wheelbarrow. A steel wheelbarrow that he used last night's drencher deposited about two inches of water in its pan. Just how that measurement would stack up in relationship to official rainfall readings isn't known but the wheelbarrow method does one thing very satisfactorily — it determines whether the rainfall had been heavy or light and that's close enough, its owner declares.

It's been quite a while since a praying mantis made the news and the one which was hanging around Peterborough's downtown area on Tuesday wasn't doing anything noteworthy but it may have wings.

It's been quite a while since a praying mantis made the news and the one which was hanging around Peterborough's downtown area on Tuesday wasn't doing anything noteworthy but it may have wings. A cool looking customer, it just couldn't seem to reconcile the idea of haste with haste.

This is kind of a sad week for a lot of schoolage people. It's the last week of the long summer vacation with its late risings, late hours and rooming of parents. The idea of regular school hours and the regular school to hold much appeal for those who have been on school for little more than their meals and sometimes not that.

The weather forecasters have been doing their usual excellent job of guessing about the weather and the weatherman's prediction? (Please turn to Page 4)

A large collie dog belonging Post" she was looking out of to Mr. and Mrs. B. Sage, 40 her bedroom window about midnight Saturday when she reported to have been badly mauled by a wolf prying a round Lindsay's North Ward. The wolf was standing on the back porch when the wolf paled within feet of him as it made its way across Pottinger Street travelling in a southerly direction.

Unofficial reports say the same animal was seen on the outskirts of town Sunday by a resident who took a shot at it.

Miss Jean Sage, relating the story of how the six-year-old collie was injured, told "The Post" she was looking out of her bedroom window about midnight Saturday when she noticed what the first thought prying around.

When the dog started growling and barking the animal attacked it, Miss Sage declared.

Mr. Sage, who by this time had made his way to the kitchen door to see what was causing the commotion, shouted to the family to stay indoors as there was a female wolf prowling around.

The younger said her father was standing on the back porch when the wolf paled within feet of him as it made its way across Pottinger Street travelling in a southerly direction.

The family of six was all in the house at the time of the attack. (Please turn to Page 4)

Noticed along the way
Kentucky Gorgeous Co. — A handsome entry by pony showman R. A. (Herb) Wainman of Lindsay, carried off the Grand Championship award in the single "Pony-in-Harness" class at the Central Canada Exhibition at Ottawa which closed last weekend.
Four ponies from the local stable were entered in various competitions at the fair and all were highly successful. Just a few of the awards carried off by the local team were: A second and third in the Lady Driver Single-in-Harness class. A first and third in the Open Single competition. First in the Pony Team; First in the "Pony Tandem" event. The Wainman team came second in the Pony Rider class. In the Child's Turn-out class the entry was placed first. On the final day of the exhibition a Wainman pony placed third in the "Parade Pony" competition.
"Indiana Flasher," "Indiana Dasher," "Diamond Flasher" and "Kentucky Gorgeous" were the names of the ponies representing the stable.
Speaking with a "Post" reporter shortly after his return from the successful exhibition, Mr. Wainman said he could not find words of praise sufficient for the 1926 year-old Clark of Ottawa, who was one of the most outstanding drivers he had ever seen in her age group.
Mr. Wainman said Miss Clarke drove his entries in the Pony Rider and the Child's Turnout classes. "She stole the show in both events," he declared.
Dave Wainman, 18-year-old, placed third in the "Parade Pony" class.

Following a hurried trip to Toronto Tuesday afternoon accompanied by Police Constable William March, Chief Hunter advised that three of the men wanted by the local department in connection with the alleged passing of the worthless documents might appear.

Impossible to accept new terms, Figure Skating Club concludes
The Lindsay Figure Skating Club, for the eighth hour, the club executive said it felt it had been very far from in, considering the higher demands of an Ottawa figure skater, that the club would be available for one-half hour week was made. This represented a 50 per cent increase over last season. All told, it disclosed last day. After careful consideration, the executive felt that the proposed eight hours of skating would be too much for the club. This year's offer would be useful to the club, amount to some $1,500 based on a 20-week season, plus additional time at the offered to operate. As to the rate of $90 per skater an hour.

Warrants out for four in bogus cheques deal
Four worthless cheques each less documents are at the moment being held by police at Bowmanville.

Chief Hunter said the men would stand trial in Lindsay at a later date.

The fourth member of the wanted quartet is still at large. He is believed to be in the Toronto area.

On Tuesday the chief issued a warning to all business establishments in the area to take extreme care cashing cheques regardless of how authentic the documents might appear.

the figure skating club has been the first to meet for over five years and feel that their activities have been no burden to the taxpayers since the value of free ice time granted to the club has been a great help. The Arena Committee has not a one book figure and not a one book figure against the skating year. It is hoped by the club that the Arena Committee will be able to maintain the club and permit the healthy, well-supervised recreation for children and teenagers and adults to continue.

In Memoriam

SAVILLE—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, who passed away Sept. 2nd, 1959.

In tears we saw you sinking
We watched you fade away

You fought so hard to stay
But when we saw you sleeping
So peacefully from pain
I could not wish you back
To suffer that again.

Sadly missed by husband Fred and daughters. (2926)

Are able to tell
The pain in the heart
At not saying farewell.

Municipal Association gives blessing to hospital sweeps

Sudbury—(UPI)—The Ontario Municipal Association has endorsed a proposal for a national hospital's sweepstakes.

Delegates to the Association's Annual meeting in Sudbury today over-ruled a resolution which had recommended rejection of the idea, which had been turned down by four previous conventions.

In another vote, the delegates approved a motion which urged the Ontario government to pass enabling legislation for a national lottery to be controlled by the Provincial Affairs General's Department.

Councillor James C. McNulty said a Canadian sweepstake would prevent people in this country from patronizing other similar schemes such as the Irish sweepstake under which he said Canadians were only helping to finance hospital care in Ireland.

Virginia's non-80th Roads said tests of 13 pavement types on Virginia roads showed 77 had satisfactory resistance quality when wet, and all were satisfactory when dry.

Queen Street choir say farewell to organist

Last Thursday, after the usual hour of practice, the choir entertained Mr. and Mrs. Eric F. McKay prior to their departure for their midst.

Mr. McKay came to Queen Street United Church from England where he studied Music. His home was in Nova Scotia.

After a lengthy lunch provided by the social convention, the President Mr. Sam Brandman, expressed regret on their departure from Lindsay, extended the good wishes of the choir and presented Mr. and Mrs. McKay with a gift of a lovely baby clock.

Rev. Lester then spoke a few words expressing his personal regret on losing Mr. McKay as organist and wishing Mr. McKay and his wife and family God's speed in his new field of service in Calgary. Mr. McKay takes up his duties this first of September.

Mr. McKay will also be missed by his many pupils in Lindsay and surrounding territory.

CONTINUES TO PILE UP MEDALS

The powerful U.S. team in the Pan American games at Chicago continues to pile up gold medals. In action yesterday (Tuesday) the U.S. athletes won seven gold first-place medals in nine events. Overall, the U.S. has won a total of 33 championships out of the 39 which have been decided so far. The U.S. entries in the team sports also are at the head of the field in almost every event.

ROUNDING OUT THE SCHEDULE

The only afternoon baseball on Wednesday is Chicago at San Francisco. Rounding out the National league schedule will be St. Louis at Los Angeles, Pittsburgh at Cincinnati in a double-header and Philadelphia at Milwaukee under the lights. The American League arc lighters are Detroit at Chicago in a two-nighter and Washington at New York, Boston at Baltimore, and Kansas City at Cleveland.

LOSE HALF GAME OF THEIR LEAD

In major league action yesterday, the Chicago White Sox lost a half-game of their American League lead when they were beaten by the Detroit Tigers, 4-0. Washington downed Boston 7-4 and New York shut out Baltimore 5-0. Kansas City and Cleveland were rained out in the National League, the Philadelphia Phillies scored a 3-3 win over Milwaukee. St. Louis shut out the Los Angeles Dodgers 3-0. Pittsburgh and Cincinnati were rained out and Chicago and San Francisco were idle.

A group of Montreal businessmen started a campaign yesterday (Tuesday) to bring major league baseball to the city, the group applied for membership in the newly formed Continental League which now consists of Toronto, New York City, Houston, Denver and Minneapolis-St. Paul.

Three more cities still have to be accepted to make up an eight-city league.

WILL START AT QUARTERBACK

Canadian Russ Jackson will start at quarterback for the Ottawa Roughriders when the winless Big Four club meets the Montreal Alouettes in Ottawa on Saturday. Coach Frank Clair says Jackson might give the Riders a "mental lift" by starting the game instead of coming in late as he has been doing.

INTERESTED IN JOINING DUTCHMEN

Former U.S. football champion Bill Campbell is interested in joining the Kitcheners Waterloo Dutchmen of the Ontario Rugby Football Union. Coach Bob Jaaron says the former Hamilton Tigercat fullback, who was cut last week, has contacted him. However, Jaaron quoted Campbell as saying that there was a possibility the Montreal Alouettes would pick him up.—(UPI)

A storm which developed over the Upper Mississippi valley cut across southern Ontario this morning after causing widespread rains across the lower lakes Toronto's evening was right in the middle of the maximum belt of rain with over 25 inch in many sections. Eastern Ontario and Central Ontario are likely to experience copious rainfall this afternoon and tonight as this storm moves northeast from Georgian Bay.

Temperatures which had shown signs of decreasing shut up again overnight as warm air swept up the Mississippi Valley in advance of the storm. And this morning very warm humid conditions continue to plague southern Ontario. There will be some relief from humidity Thursday but above normal temperatures continue.

Company-union talks scheduled for tonight

Meetings aimed at breaking the deadlock between management and labour at the Dominion Brake Shoe plant in Lindsay, will be held at the company's office this evening.

If tonight's scheduled meeting between the two parties should end in failure, there is a possibility that the 125 members of the United Steel Workers of America, Local 4972, Local 6, employed at the plant may call an official strike.

Earlier this week, Mr. William Powell union representative told "The Post", the steelworkers had requested tonight's meeting be held to discuss the Ontario Conciliation Board's report.

Cheering Frenchmen greet Ike

Tens of thousands of cheering Frenchmen have greeted President Eisenhower on his arrival in Paris. French President Charles De Gaulle welcomed the President warmly, addressing him as the "Leader of the armies of liberty." Mr. Eisenhower responded by declaring that he hopes to concentrate joint French-American efforts toward one single goal—peace with justice. The two presidents begin talks today on a series of issues that have threatened to divide France from her western allies.

Speculation curiously dismissed

Sources close to West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer have curiously dismissed speculation that he is considering any major policy switch toward Russia. The speculation arose last Friday when Adenauer sent an unusually friendly letter to the Soviet Premier Khrushchev and the Russian leader acknowledged it as such.

Seven killed, thousand wounded

Seven persons have been killed and more than one thousand wounded in clashes between police and Communist rioters in Calcutta. The mobs, demonstrating in protest against alleged food shortages, reportedly are in unimpeded control of some sections of the city of four million. A general strike scheduled for tomorrow is expected to make chaotic conditions in the city still worse.

India's Prime Minister Nehru has told a tense, crowded parliament that India's defense crisis has eased off. The Indian Premier heaped praise on Defense Minister Krishna Menon, but made no mention of his proffered resignation.

God-king arrives

Thibet's exiled God-king has arrived in New Delhi to seek Indian support in bringing Thibet's case against Red China before the U.N.

Secret police chief checks

Russia's secret police chief is in the United States checking security arrangements for Soviet Premier Khrushchev's 12-day visit. The Russian official and an aide are visiting all the cities Khrushchev will visit on his tour.

Major victory for PCs

The major victory at the polls by the Conservatives in Prince Edward Island yesterday leaves Newfoundland the only province with a Liberal administration. The Tories won 22 seats yesterday in the 30-seat P.E.I. legislature, 18 more than they held when the legislature was dissolved. Leading the Conservatives to victory was 71-year-old farmer Walter Shaw.

Reaffirms PCs' popularity

The P.E.I. election results reaffirmed Conservatives' popularity in the Maritimes provinces where public opinion poll showed the Conservatives had slipped in the Maritimes from 57 per cent of the vote in July, 1958, to 51 per cent in January, 1959, to 47 per cent in May, 1959, before edging up to an even 50 per cent last month.

Feel visit may avert war

A West German member of parliament visiting Toronto says that many Germans feel Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev's visit to the United States may avert a third world war. Richard Kettner said in an interview yesterday that the Germans also feel that if Hitler had toured America and seen her strength there would have been no second world war.

Consider trading stamp charge

Ontario Assistant Crown Attorney Henry Bull is considering whether a charge should be laid in connection with the use of trading stamps by supermarkets in the province. A complaint against the stamp policy was made last week by the Retail Merchant's Association of Canada which claims trading stamps would bring on higher prices. Justice Minister E. Davis Fulton will review the matter Sept. 9th.

Former minister seriously ill

Former cabinet minister James M. MacDonnell is reported in serious condition in a Toronto hospital. MacDonnell was flown to the Ontario capital yesterday from Nova Scotia where he was stricken while on vacation. The 73-year-old former federal member from Toronto-Greenwood resigned his cabinet post Aug. 10.

The losing decades

A prominent Nova Scotia educator says that in every decade since 1850 the Maritimes have lost through migration about 10,000 persons. Doctor Alexander Laidlaw of Halifax said in Montreal yesterday that the great disparity of wages to be earned in the Maritimes and the rest of the country will perpetuate the drift of population. Laidlaw was addressing a seminar of the National Federation of Canadian University Students.

Mad like a wet hen

A 24-year-old Los Angeles housewife raced her car at speeds up to 100-miles an hour... committed 11 other traffic violations... and was sentenced yesterday to 30 days in jail. The woman, for the range, was an argument with her husband. As Mrs. Diana Garcia put it—"I just got mad."

FOR BETTER LAWN
SEED IN THE FALL
 It's a good idea to follow nature's plan and sow your lawn in the late summer or early fall, according to horticulturists of the Ontario Dept. of Agriculture.

Why? Well, during this period heat is not so intense and there are fewer weeds. What's more the cooler weather encourages good rooting. Sowing in the early fall so that the grass is well established before winter sets in. Well-rooted plants will suffer less from drought and heat next summer.

Start your final seedbed preparation about ten days before the chosen sowing date. . . . Sow the seed in the soil covered with a thin layer of soil to destroy the weeds that have started. Roll and rake the area to produce a fine, level seedbed. On large areas, try dragging a plank back and forth to produce the same level effect. At seeding time, most of the soil should be as fine as sifted ashes.

Don't skimp on the seed. A late seeding rate of 3 to 5 pounds per 1,000 square feet is best when Kentucky blue grass forms a high percentage of the mixture. Sow half the seed over the entire area. Then seed the rest at right angles to the first. To insure an even job, it is best to sow where there is little wind.

After seeding, rake the soil lightly to cover the seed to a depth of 1/4 inch. Rake in one direction, to prevent collection of seed in ridges. A light covering of screened topsoil may be applied as an alternative.

Rolling to firm the soil around the seed will encourage uniform germination. Be sure that the roller is dry, or else some seed may be picked up and wasted. Roll again after the grass germinates and after the first cutting.

Watering: Use a fine spray. Be careful not to wash away seed. Keep the area uniformly moist, but not saturated.

The human side

These stories will give you a lift "NOBODY KNOWS"

A man in Swindon, England, has found there is just no end to his troubles.

Leonard Price had been arrested for a misdeed and was being towed along in the custody of police in handcuffs. Price escaped. But alert police recaptured him—and then charged him with stealing the handcuffs.

SIGN LANGUAGE

The Wakegum Women's Club had good intentions but the wrong language.

The ladies decided to hold a fiesta for the 100 Latin American athletes participating in Chicago.

The fiesta was scheduled for Saturday. Three hundred orders of fried chicken were prepared and tables were set up in a local museum to hold the food. Two bands were on hand.

But no one showed up at the party. Finally the chubwomen donated all their chicken to local hospitals.

The trouble was that the sign posted in a dormitory announcing the fiesta were in English—and no one in the group speaks English.

CINDERELLA STORY
 A mixed-up Cinderella story in Mobile Alabama. . . . A burglar fleeing in the night from the home of Alton James lost his shoes in his haste and confusion.

Police applied the remedy Cinderella's handsome admirer used in tracing the suspect. They looked for the feet that would fit the shoes.

Yesterday police fitted the shoes to a 15-year-old boy, and they bore him away to the local jail.

NO BAIL, JAIL

Mrs. John Draper spent her wedding night alone because she couldn't raise 125 dollars.

The new bridegroom—a 34-year-old signpainter—had an auto accident just as he and the new Mrs. Draper were leaving the scene of the wedding.

Police jailed the rascally Cinderella's handsome admirer used in tracing the suspect. They looked for the feet that would fit the shoes.

Yesterday police fitted the shoes to a 15-year-old boy, and they bore him away to the local jail.

 Patrolman Robert Deszend, Junior, of the New York City Police force may hold a record for the men in blue.

Deszend recently delivered his 40th baby. He beat the ambulance to the home of Mrs. Frances Lopez and assisted in the birth of a seven-pound foreign boy.

THE RIVER SPILLS THE PARK
Lindsay's Parks Board has gone to a lot of work and expense beautifying Macdonnell Park. It is beyond doubt one of the finest examples of small park development to be found in those parts of Ontario but the present condition of the river does it a disservice.

As recently as last night the river bordering on the park was a mess of weeds and other debris and this unsightly condition prevails east of the Lindsay Street north bridge where a much-protected sewer apparently continues to empty into the stream. This condition should not be permitted to exist and would appear that a little ingenuity on the part of canal authorities could help to clean up the situation. Why not try?

Moving day again

Only small vehicle but it's produced a large headache for the C of C

Although the sports car on which tickets are sold by the Lindsay City Council is a "small" vehicle it has succeeded in causing a "large" headache for chamber personnel since its arrival here last week.

The vehicle was Monday moved to a new resting place at the rear of the Chamber of Commerce, was asked the reason for the latest move he replied, "the vehicle has been moved to a spot where we hope it will be free from the abuse and comments of certain people."

Mr. D. McInnes said he was of the opinion certain people should have complained about the fact that a large tractor-trailer shipped a spot in front of the town hall for several days. "I didn't see any comments," he said.

At first Mr. McInnes was surprised the vehicle was moved to a spot where he hoped it would be free from the abuse and comments of certain people.

When the car first made its appearance on the local scene caused an immediate rumour that the vehicle was being complained to the chamber that the grass where the car was parked would be harmed if the vehicle was allowed to stay there.

The vehicle was next moved to the front of the town hall. Once again an objection was raised. "This time on the grounds that the entrance to the ladies' washroom was being blocked and the position of the car was keeping the sun off the nearby flowerbeds."

Immediately next to the newly-painted water fountain was the next part of call for the "spirit" "Now this latest move."

Uncertain reports this morning stated that two of the local service clubs had raised objections to the move.

The location of the sports car being parked on the sidewalk in front of the town hall.

CLAXTON'S
40 KENT ST. W. LINDSAY

From September 11th until the 1st as part of the celebrations marking the 350th anniversary of explorer Henry Hudson's arrival in America.

History may be repeating itself in the Royal Palace of Denmark. The palace once served as the unofficial matchmaking parlor for European royalty. Last night, Danish King Frederick the ninth and Queen Ingrid held a dance and Swedish, Greek and Norwegian their most eligible royalty. Greek Crown Prince Constantine and Swedish Princess Desirée formed one couple in matchmaking speculation and the 25-year-old Norwegian Crown Prince—Harald—and 28-year-old Greek Princess Sophia made up another possibility.

An earlier Danish King—Christian the ninth—was known as "The Father-in-law of Europe." His palace was the setting for matchmaking that paired his daughters with Czar Alexander of Russia and King Edward the seventh of England before World War One.

Lost 16 Years Ago. Found Mary Spies of Emmetsburg, Iowa, has a family keepsake, but even though she thought it was gone forever, Mary had given her great-great-grandson's wedding ring when she was in the sixth grade. She wore it on a chain around her neck. But she went swimming in Lake Okoboji and lost it. That was 16 years ago and it took the 123-year-old family keepsake was found... and Mary Spies plans to hang on to it from now on.

She Really Wanted It
Korean-born Mrs. Dorothy Dorell wanted her American citizenship very much. So much in fact, the 29-year-old woman, having labor pains to appear in federal court in Alexandria, Virginia, to become a citizen this week. She waited long enough to receive congratulations... rushed to a nearby hospital... and gave birth to an American citizen son. Said the new mother, "I'm really proud and pleased—I'm in love with this country."

Beautiful Tip
If laugh lines are obvious, tone them down with a lighter shade of make-up. But keep smiling. A winning smile can make a beauty out of another wise plain person.

A Father's Request
Director Roberto Rossellini has asked an Italian Court to let him keep his three children instead of returning them to their mother, actress Ingrid Bergman.
The action is the latest in a series of bitter fights that have followed the breakup of the marriage. Rossellini has had custody of the youngsters since six-year-old Roberto and nine-year-old twins Lollo and Isabella — for a two-month summer vacation. He was to send them back to their mother August 25th. Instead, he kept the children at his villa north of Rome and appealed to a court to revise the custody order so he would have them.
The Rossellini-Bergman marriage was annulled by a Roman court which later reversed its ruling. In the eyes of Italian courts the two are still wedded. Bergman married Swedish millionaire Lars Schmidt without waiting for the final appeals. It is doubtful that she will take the chance to return to Italy in an out-of-court action.

A tribute...
To my brother "Huh"
You painted bones for a fee. But your true talent was 'hid-den but all but me.
You painted a picture of a cabin small.
By a beautiful sunset and trees so tall—
And a winding stream ran here and there.
Oh yes, your picture was very fair.
Your nature was quiet, humble and true.
This is how I'll always remember you.

Cool Cooker
Many a time during sweltering hot summer days I have found myself looking for one of those little cookers that can be used in the kitchen or on the grill. There is an almost limitless variety of ways in which these little cookers can be used. I have found that they are very handy and easy to use. I have found that they are very handy and easy to use. Chili-Glazed Fillets
With Pineapple
I found fresh or frozen fillets. Juices of a half a lemon or cup chili sauce. 2 1/2 cups pineapple chunks, drained.

If frozen, let blocks of fillets thaw on refrigerator shelf until they can be easily separated. Cut fish into four equal portions. Arrange on aluminum foil-lined broiler pan. Sprinkle fish with lemon juice, then spread with pineapple sauce. Arrange pineapple chunks around fish, on foil.

In preheated broiler, broil 2 inches from source of heat five to eight minutes, or until fish flakes, easily when tested with a fork. (Allow about ten minutes per inch thickness of fish.) Makes four servings.

Shower of gifts at Oakwood (PNK)

A beautiful shower of gifts and good wishes was tendered on the occasion of Miss Beverly McIntyre on the occasion of her wedding to Mr. Ken Scott, who was married to a gaily decorated parlour by several of her former schoolmates. The bride was wearing a lovely white dress and a white veil. The groom was wearing a dark suit and a white shirt. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. McLeod, who was assisted by Mr. J. H. Travel Round and Round in a Maze

THERE are two entrances to the maze above, but only one path leads to "center." Can you find the other? You'll travel round and round before reaching the goal, so be sure to maintain a good sense of direction.

Start with a pencil at the top of the entrance and trace a path between the lines. It is required that you keep between the lines and do not cross any of them.

Know Right Numbers?

TO SOLVE this puzzle, proceed as you would in a crossword puzzle, using a pencil instead of a pen. For the numbers, insert a single digit in each square of the diagram at right. The trick is to get numbers that will function as both across and down.

Sparks Of Wisdom

Obedience
 I find the delay of the will of God leaves me no time for disputing about His plans.
 —George MacDonald.

Editorial

LET'S NOT BE SILLY ABOUT THIS THING . . .
 The late Sir Sam Hughes is frequently quoted as having said that he didn't care what people said about him as long as they mentioned his name. Ex-Mayor Chas. Lamb subscribed to this line of thought in that he is hoped that Lindsay Central Exhibition feels the same way because it is being talked about quite a lot these days.
 A lot of the trouble is caused by the fact that there is some disagreement as to which day should be Citizens' Day at the exhibition . . . and which day the local stores should close. Some want to close Wednesday afternoon as usual, some lean to Thursday but in reality there is no longer 100 per cent closing in Lindsay on any half day holiday . . . you can always get a piece of cheese, a loaf of bread or a plug of tobacco.
 There is a way out of the whole dilemma and it is quite a simple one . . . postpone the holding of Civic Holiday at Lindsay until fair time and then make a day of it.
 In the meantime let's not be silly about this business of which will be a half day holiday during the fair and give some thought to how we can support the fair on a town-wide basis. The suggestion of postponing Civic Holiday is only one idea . . . Perhaps you have a better one.

NO ANSWER TO COMMUNISM?
 Sept. 16.—(UPI)—Dr. Nelson Chappell, general secretary of the World Council of Christian Education, told United Churchmen yesterday that the west has no answer to Communism as long as we refuse to trade with the Orient and the Middle East.
 In an address to the United Church Board of Christian Education annual meeting, Dr. Chappell said, "The Japanese people are not to be westerners—they want to be Oriental."
 As long as our standard of living is so much higher than the standard in the Orient and Middle East and as long as we refuse to trade with them so they can buy food they need, we haven't any answer to Communism," he said.
 At the end of the second World War, he said, some people looked for an upsurge of Christianity which didn't come. And less than one quarter of one per cent of the Japanese are Christian.

Turning Back The Calendar

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16th
 Nine years ago arrangements were being made for the replacement of the artificial ice making piping at the Lindsay Curling Club. Mr. N. Wilson, president of the Curling Club, Cost of replacing the leaking piping was estimated between $4,000 and $4,500.
 A "The Townsman" six years ago reported potato plants attaining a height of six feet, six inches. Mr. E. Ward stated that he had an exceptional crop of potatoes that year, and had measured some tops that grew to the above mentioned height. He also stated that production underground was also exceptional. Two hills of his Sagapo potatoes filled a six-quart basket.

PROCLAMATION

By authority of a resolution of the Council of the Town of Lindsay, I hereby proclaim Thursday Afternoon, Sept. 24th, 1939 to be a Civic Holiday in and for the Town of Lindsay to recognize Citizens' Day at the Lindsay Exhibition.
 J. L. BUREWIS,
 Mayor.

MYRTLE

The Human Mind and Body

By Peter J. Stencorn, M.D., F.A.C.P.
Woman Frowns on Husband's Daily Two Glasses of Beer
 "Dear Dr. Stencorn: I would appreciate the latest medical thinking regarding beer drinking on policy. My husband has been drinking two glasses of beer a day for about four years. He also has very time-consuming work which tires him physically, mentally and emotionally. We also have felt hostility for one another—what's certainly not helped."
 "I am convinced that the psychological conditions are the cause of his impotency. I am willing to do my part in resolving our hostility. But what bothers me is this: Will continued drinking of two glasses of beer daily interfere with my resolutions? Sincerely, Mrs. X."

ANSWER: The latest medical thinking will agree that there is sufficient cause for your husband's physical, intellectual hostility and stress due to emotional and physical loads too difficult to bear. Less or eliminate these stressors and you can forget about the beer as being a causative factor.

BALDNESS
 "Dear Dr. Stencorn: For the past few years I have been losing my hair. It used to grow back in my baldness. Now my physician has tested me for vitamin deficiency and nerves, but says there are not. He wants me to begin now. I also thought that it was due to 'change of life' but he doesn't think so. I am 50."
 "I have not been able to find the cause or cure. What do you recommend? Sincerely, Mrs. Y."

ANSWER: I suggest a good-natured resignation to your baldness. It is probable that you had a good head of hair until now. Think of all the high school boys you begin losing their hair in their teens and who are completely bald in their late twenties and early thirties.

One warning! I think you may be "ripe" as a prospect for some nonmedical "specialists" who will promise to restore your youthful locks.
 Beware! Your pockets may become as empty as your scalp.

I know of no better treatment to save what remaining hair you may have than daily massage of your scalp to wake up a lazy circulation. You can do the job yourself. X-ray for bunions?

"Dear Dr. Stencorn: Would you be so kind as to tell me whether or not there is any known treatment for bunions other than surgery? It is impossible to destroy excess tissue or bone structure by use of radium or X-ray."

"The bunions which concern me are really enlarged joints which I have had for some time. I wear shoes that are too small, and I have had them for a long time. I don't want to have surgery. Thank you, Mr. E."

ANSWER: Don't fool with radium or X-ray. Your doctor will tell you whether operation is indicated.
Trip On Reducing
 "Dear Dr. Stencorn: I not only want to 'take it off,' but I want to lose about 75 pounds. I wear a 42 and would be happy to get into a 36 again. Can it be done? What is the No. 1?"

"It might be nice," X-ray sneered.

"THE POST" LINDSAY, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17TH, 1939

World Sends its Congratulations

An unpublished picture of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, who is expecting her third child early next year. Messages of congratulation and good wishes from all over the world have poured into Buckingham Palace and Balmoral Castle, the royal home in the Highlands of Scotland. Some of them came from private citizens who have met the Queen on her many overseas tours; others were from public bodies, official organizations and leading citizens in every part of the Commonwealth.

Chatterbox

— by Millicent —

Danger Out of Bleach
Automation has taken the danger out of using bleach in the family laundry.

A new electric washer keeps even the most inexperienced laundress from burning the clothes by pouring in too much bleach. The washer has an automatic dispenser that stores, measures, dithes and dotes out the bleach at the proper time in the washing process. The storage reservoir holds three quarts of liquid chlorine bleach — about a month's supply for a typical family. The machine is equipped with fingertip controls for fast dispensing the bleach in quantities up to one and one-fourth cup maximum . . . the safe amount for a full washer load.

Look, No Needles
A new sewing kit comes in a squeeze tube . . . and it doesn't use any needles. The "kit" is a tube of white, waterproof adhesive the manufacturer says will hold nearly every type of fabric, including yarn, and synthetics. Called Fifty Sew the manufacturer says it will fix everything from fur coats to girdles and nylons . . . can be used to attach zippers and prevent unraveling in button holes.

New Look in Tuna
Tuna takes on a new appearance in frozen tuna links and pressed tuna loaf. The links are cured, spiced and bickery-smoked and are available in cocktail size in cans. The loaf, a pre-cooked product, is seasoned and ready to serve in sandwiches and salads . . . or as an addition to the cold cut platter.

Mini-Fashions
An old-fashioned idea becomes the basis for a new product in lingerie. Pettu - ligette, of nylon tricot is used for a combination pants with half slip to be worn under under dresses, the combination looks like carry - overs from the civil war days made up in a modern 20th century style. They come in a variety of shades including red, baby pink, green and watermelon. Lace adds another feminine touch.

No Big Ones
Even the most harassed house wife will be able to keep her children from squabbling over the biggest hamburger with a new hamburger press. Made of die - cast aluminum the press makes patties a uniform size and eliminates messy hand dinging.

Beauty Tip
If freckles plague you, try using a bleaching cream to lighten the spots, then make up blusher to make them less obvious.

In Memoriam

JEWELL—In loving memory of my dear husband, Elroy who passed away September 17, 1958.

Rejoice your grave I often stand with heart both crushed and soiled. Silent till the sweet words come. Not lost but gone before. And how does home much I miss you. He counts the tears I shed. And whispers "He only sleeps." Your loved one is not dead. So I'll be brave dear Elroy And pray to God each day. And when he calls me home to you.

Your smile will guide the way. —Lovingly remembered by Mrs. J. A. Powers. (3035)

POGUE—In loving memory of my brother Fred who passed away Sept. 18, 1951. He is gone but not forgotten.

And, as dawn another year, In our lonely hours of thinking Thoughts of him are always near.

Days of sadness will come o'er us. Many think the wound is healed. But they little know the sorrow.

That lies in the heart concealed. —Sadly missed by his brothers and sisters. (3048) well, who today celebrates her 78th birthday. Many happy returns.

"Intrigued" by hydro bill

Mayor Lloyd Burness, ex-deputy-reve Pearce moved official member of the Lindsay Hydro Commission, was this week asked to investigate further a bill received by the town from the commission.

Lighting Chairman Jos. Hurler told Town Council the bill he received quoted a service charge of $444 while the figure quoted for electricity was $575.

The chairman said he was very "intrigued" by the service charge amount. During a debate at the town council meeting the deputy-reve recalled that a short time ago the hydro commission had been purchased with an "accumulated surplus" while the town was seeking money for other purposes. "Nobody on Council was aware of this situation," said the speaker.

Clear Up For Maple Tar Spot
These tar-like, penny-size spots in your maple trees might be caused by a disease known as "tar spot," developed on the upper surface of infected leaves, and is especially common on silver maple and Norway maple.

Botanists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture warn that the disease may be back again next spring if something is not done about it this fall. The fungus survives best in seasons on the fallen, diseased leaves. In the fall, disperse the fungus by blowing by air currents to the young maple leaves where they cause infection.

For control, gather and burn the diseased leaves this autumn.

Dr. Francis P. McNulty

Active in Kawartha White Cane Club
Dr. Francis P. McNulty of Lindsay and formerly of Peterborough, died Sunday Sept. 6, 1959, in St. Joseph's Hospital after a short illness. He was in his 87th year.

Born in Port Dalhousie, Ont., son of the late John McNulty and Sarah Walker, Dr. McNulty was educated in St. Catharines Collegiate Institute and was a graduate of the medical school of the University of Toronto.

Coming to Peterborough in 1900, he established a successful practice, especially as a proficient surgeon. In his professional progress, he became a member of the surgical staff of St. Joseph's Hospital, and was largely instrumental in setting up its training school for lay nurses.

He was appointed to the city's board of health in 1909 of which he was chairman in 1910-11, one of his activities in the public service. Eventually he became chief consultant of the surgical staff of St. Joseph's Hospital. In 1947, at the University of Toronto convention, he received an honorary degree.

In recognition of 50 years of service as physician and surgeon, Dr. McNulty was honoured by the medical profession of the city and district at a complimentary dinner in 1947.

Dr. McNulty was a member of the Peterborough Medical Association, serving twice as president, also of the Ontario Medical Association, and for 25 years had been a member of the British Medical Association.

Falling vision in 1932 caused the retirement of Dr. McNulty from the practice in which he had distinguished himself. A member of the Knights of Columbus, he was the last of the charter members of Peterborough Council No. 793. His wife, the former Louise Sullivan died two years ago.

While in Lindsay where he resided for seven years, he was closely identified with the Kawartha Chapter of the White Cane Club. He remained active as long as health permitted. His last illness was with his daughter, Margery, 12 Glenelg St. E.

Dr. McNulty leaves two daughters, Mrs. George McCrae (Marcella) and Miss Margery McNulty, both of Lindsay; sons Frank and John;

WEDDING

McFadyen-Watson

Pink and white gladioli decorated Knox Presbyterian Church in Woodville, which was the setting for a pretty August wedding on Saturday, the 22nd at 4 o'clock, when Marjorie Dennis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus D. McFadyen, was united in marriage with Mr. Carl Ross Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Watson of Beaverton. Rev. C. J. Beckley officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. W. N. Russell was the organist. Mr. Gordon Murray, the soloist, sang "The Wedding Prayer" before the ceremony. The "Twenty-third Psalm" the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a beautiful gown of white imported silk organza. The V neckline was beaded with seed pearls and sequins. Three-quarter length puffed sleeves framed the fitted bodice. A petal shaped train, appliqued and beaded with seed pearls, her fingertip lace illusion veil. She carried a cascade of red roses.

The bride's attendants wore street length dresses, with a harem hemline, of royal blue silk organza over white printed with royal blues. The dresses contrasted with white picture hats, gloves and shoes.

Matron of honour, Mrs. J. T. Freeman, her sister, carried a cascade of rose and white.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Rich and Bellamy, groom's sister and Miss Sheila Nicholls carried cascades of pink and white carnations. The flower girl, Brenda McFadyen of Brampton, niece of the bride, wore a dress identical to that of the bridesmaids but wore a headpiece of pink baby rose buds.

The flowergirl was accompanied by Master Stephen Pringle, ring bearer, nephew of the groom, who wore grey flannels and jacket, he carried a white satin cushion decorated with pink carnations.

The best man was Mr. Richard Bellamy, brother-in-law of the groom, the ushers were Mr. Eldon McFadyen, brother of the bride and Mr. Paul Wilson. The groom and his attendants wore charcoal grey suits.

The bride's mother received the guests wearing a navy suit with rosewood anodized accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations. Assisting her, the groom's mother wore an azure blue nylon dress with pink and navy accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

The reception was held in the church hall.

The bride's going away ensembles was a powder blue linen suit, with matching picture hat and gloves, contrasted by beige shoes and purse and a corsage of rose and white carnations.

The newlyweds left amid showers of confetti and good wishes on a trip to the West Coast.

On their return the happy couple will take up residence in their new home in Beaverton.

Guests attending the wedding were from Beaverton, Lindsay, Peterborough, Coburn, Brampton, Georgetown, Guelph, Toronto, Woodville and Argyle.

developments, has raised the power output to 79.5 brake horse power at 5600 revolutions per minute, giving a top speed of 100 miles per hour and a cruising speed of 80 miles per hour.

Khrushchev visits Maryland

Soviet Premier Khrushchev has left Washington for a tour of the U.S. Agriculture Department's research centre at Beltsville, Maryland. Khrushchev was accompanied by his wife and American U.N. ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

Will attend luncheon

Khrushchev later went to the National Press Club for luncheon. Tonight, he and Mrs. Khrushchev will entertain President and Mrs. Eisenhower at a dinner at the Russian Embassy. Tomorrow the Khrushchevs will go to New York City for a 48-hour stay before leaving for a cross-country tour.

Faces tough questioning

Soviet Premier Khrushchev is facing a full schedule today—including some of the toughest questioning he can expect to face on his 13-day visit to the U.S. He will address a luncheon meeting of the National Press Club in Washington—then submit to a rough-and-tumble question-and-answer period. He will be asked leading questions by some of the nation's top newsmen.

Dragnet intensified

One of eastern Ontario's biggest dragnets is being intensified today in the 10-day search for two armed and desperate kidnap and robbery suspects. Police roadblocks on most highways south of Ottawa and searches in other areas have failed to turn up any trace of the two men who yesterday held up two elderly widow at gunpoint for two hours. The pair are also wanted in connection with two previous kidnappings in Ontario.

Violent storm Korea-bound

New recreation bylaw meets with resistance

"The feeling has never been as hard against the Recreation Commission as it is now," declared Coun. Jos. Hutton during a discussion on a proposed new recreation bylaw of Monday night's special meeting of Town Council.

These comments came as Recreation Chairman Gordon Pepper was attempting to bulldoze the bylaw through its second reading. The chairman, encountered stubborn resistance from several members before the matter was finally defeated on a later meeting.

The bylaw authorizing the carrying out of a community program of recreation for the town was defeated until members have been supplied with copies of the proposed bylaw so that further study may be given to the matter.

Outlining details of the revised bylaw Chairman Pepper said it was proposed to revert to a council form of government with two Council members and five citizen members. Council previously had four members on the committee. To assist in guiding the committee some continuing the speaker suggested the appointments be for a three-year term.

It was revealed that the bylaw was drawn up by the Recreation Commission. The speaker said he had no objection to two members of Council being appointed to guide the committee.

Deputy-revee Peirce said he would like an opportunity to be heard on the subject. The speaker said he had no objection to two members of Council being appointed to guide the committee.

"There have been some poor and very weak chairmen in the past on this committee," declared Mr. Pepper.

During the discussion the chairman repeatedly cited instances of how the recreation program in Peterborough is carried out and the present setup of the committee there.

Coun. Hutton asked what the Recreation Commission have against five citizen members. Mr. Hutton went on to suggest that "Council get out of the way and let the Recreation Commission turn the whole show over to a citizens' committee."

Mr. Peirce said that former bylaw had specified that the chairman of the committee should be a member of the Council representatives. Mr. Pepper, obviously upset by the stormy reception heaped upon his proposal, turned to the low Councilors, returned to the fray with the remark that the Council should show the citizens the shape of responsibility for the very state of recreation in the town of Lindsay.

"The feeling has never been as hard against the recreation commission as it is now," countered Mr. Hutton.

Deputy-revee Peirce said the logical man for the chairman of the committee was a member of the Council. He could keep his fellow Councilors briefed on the latest happenings of the Recreation Commission. It was pointed out by the Recreation Chairman that the mayor was a member of the hydro and water commissions. "The feeling has never been as hard against the Recreation Commission as it is now," declared Coun. Jos. Hutton during a discussion on a proposed new recreation bylaw of Monday night's special meeting of Town Council.

"The recreation center is not run on a commission basis, as is the case with the hydro and water commissions. It is being poured into the recreation program, a member of Council should have a share of the committee," said Deputy-revee Peirce. The speaker said he would move a motion that the matter be referred to a later meeting.

When Mr. Peirce was asked to withdraw his motion to refer the matter to a later meeting, he declared, "Second the motion." The speaker said he would move a motion that the matter be referred to a later meeting.

A further motion of Mr. Peirce, that the speaker be removed from the committee, was also defeated. The speaker said he would move a motion that the matter be referred to a later meeting.

PROPOSES 82-LOT SUBDIVISION

News of yet another housing subdivision was released at Monday night's meeting of Town Council.

The latest proposed subdivision is to be erected on the corner of the intersection of the property north of Pottinger Street on the Pusken Highway.

Mr. Ray Walton, who submitted the plan indicated there would be 82 lots on the subdivision.

The matter was referred to the Lindsay and Opt Township Planning Board for consideration.

Noticed along the way

That Lindsay's Council seems to take the town's press in much the same category as a camel . . . They apparently figure we can go a long time without a drink of water. While a tempting picture of Lindsay's sparkling water, with an adequate supply of glasses for councilors, adorns the council table for each meeting, the press is left high and dry at either side of the room. Water, water everywhere and not a drop for the press anywhere.

No one on Lindsay's Council seems to know just sure who gave out-of-town newspapers authority to insist on having boxes on town property. The decision came at last night's special and committee meetings of council when Council for Don Acheson said the boxes were a nuisance.

Chairman Pepper declared that the bylaw must be passed shortly in order for the town to qualify for the provincial grant. The speaker said he had no objection to two members of Council being appointed to guide the committee.

Convinced no mistake made, Peirce says if fire unit; bylaw given two readings

Lindsay Town Council Monday evening gave a second reading to a bylaw governing the purchase of a King Sea-grave combination aerial ladder-pumper at a cost of $33,900.

On Motion of Deputy-revee Peirce it was unanimously agreed that debentures for a period of ten years should be issued to cover the cost of the piece of equipment.

When a vote to purchase the next year's equipment was taken, which included a 65-foot combination ladder was taken, Coun. Jas. McQuarrie was asked to read a letter from the president, Mrs. H. Lutton to the chair. The letter, followed by the Mayor, Steward, Collect and the Lord's Prayer, in which all members joined.

The secretary-treasurer, Mrs. H. N. Rogers, read a very satisfactory financial statement. During the correspondence a letter was read from Miss Lammann the Home Economics representative, stating that she had been invited and introducing the new representative, Miss June Lillipour. A very interesting letter was read from the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. H. N. Rogers, read a very satisfactory financial statement.

Deputy-revee Peirce told Coun. Doris Acheson that delivery of the equipment would take 60-90 days. Mrs. Acheson said she felt something should be purchased now. "What's the use of waiting till early next year?" she asked. The chairman revealed that delivery could not be made before next year as the machines were custom made.

"Mr. Peirce informed Council it had been brought to his attention that Council may have made a mistake in the decision reached regarding the purchase of the machine. I don't feel that the fire committee have made a mistake," declared the deputy-revee.

The speaker revealed he had spent many hours on the project. If people had with the equipment we were contemplating purchasing was inferior, I would have appreciated their bringing it to my notice," said Mr. Peirce.

Mr. Peirce declared that he had talked with the general manager of the company. He received the assurance that the machine was the best equipment to any test by the Fire Marshal's department.

The company has also said that the purchase of the one year guarantee on the first fighting equipment to five years, stated the fire committee.

Mayor Burrows disclosed he had received several calls from citizens regarding the proposed purchase of the new equipment. On his invitation the chairman made several investigations regarding the ladder. He was very satisfied with the equipment. He also disclosed some concern regarding the ladder being shabby and too light had been one of the points to be investigated by the chairman. Other points were also mentioned.

Mr. J. F. Lane supplied the Manners chair on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Lane were dinner guests of Mr. T. Jackson, Bathurst.

The Human Mind and Body

Problems of Teen-Agers—and under

"Dear Dr. Stenhouse: I have been reading your column out here in California. I just read the one about how hard it is for some people to adopt a child.

"I find there are many couples who are looking for children to adopt. My problem is just the opposite. I have a very nice four-year-old girl who is a well-built, attractive child. However, she has a rather low IQ. Her daily living habits are normal but she needs some one who has the time and patience to care for her.

"The more I think about it, the more I am convinced that I should adopt a child. I just don't know how to go about it. I have a very nice four-year-old girl who is a well-built, attractive child. However, she has a rather low IQ. Her daily living habits are normal but she needs some one who has the time and patience to care for her.

Growing his own....

The rising cost of smoking has led a local resident to experiment with growing his own, with which he says he hopes to roll his own. He points out that he isn't going in for conventional tobacco plants but is utilizing the leaves of some Kingsize nicotine plants the sweet smelling flowering variety. Some samples of leaves he was curing are shown above. Massive, five of them occupy a good share of table top with an area of about eight square feet. Will smoke get in his eyes from the finished product or is it only a pipe dream? Time alone will tell. He declined to be named at this moment on the grounds that he didn't want to tangle with federal excise agents until the experiment proved up.

New school for Lindsay?

Suggest board delegate member to talk over $75,000 proposal

Lindsay's Council has passed a motion that a Lindsay Public School Board representative be present at next week's meeting to advise Council regarding proposed building of an eight-room elementary school in the north ward of town.

In a letter to Council the board asked for permission to proceed for the issuing of a debenture for the proposed school.

The board said the eight classroom school would cost an estimated $160,000 to $175,000.

Deve Bruce Maitland expressed surprise that a figure as high as $200,000 per classroom was suggested by the board.

Mayor Burrows said it was the board's desire to have the school ready for occupancy by school year 1967.

"Just where are they going to get 280 on the road to attend the school," queried Reade Maitland.

Many members said they would like to hear further from the board representative before the proposal before commencing further.

Some residents claim East is neglected can't understand why

Friday's editorial in "The Post" has led to a number of letters from town councillors and residents on the controversial question: "Is there a neglected area in the town of Lindsay?"

Deputy-reverend Harry Peirce said he has a need for a bridge at either Melbourne or Durham Streets. Mr. Peirce said the future development of the whole area was contingent on the erection of a bridge.

He said there was a vast amount of very desirable property from a spot adjacent to the "Venison Road to the river. One of the problems encountered in such a development proposal would be the erection of an additional pumping station," said the speaker.

Mr. Gordon Pepper said he felt a bridge at Colborne Street was needed more than a bridge in the area.

He said the speaker served that with all the industrial development taking place in the area, such a bridge would be more beneficial to the town's needs.

Mr. Pepper forecasted that a bridge in the area would be encouraged by the town this might be the stimulus for a new development project.

It was suggested by Mrs. Doris Atchison that Council's plan for a bridge at Colborne Street.

He said the speaker intended to bring the matter of a bridge to cross the river at Melbourne Street up to the next town council meeting of Town Council.

The speaker revealed that he was 100 per cent behind the plan to use the East Ward development. "There is a lot of land over there which can be used for a variety of purposes," declared Mr. Hutcheon.

In the preliminary report on the annexation brought by the town of Meaford, the following report was made: "The Harold Batey, dated May 1981, stated that there are some 38 acres suitable for residential purposes and a further 114 acres suitable for industrial purposes. In addition to this there are some 34 serviced lots in the Marysville area."

West side of the river there are 20-30 building lots which would be impossible to develop. A new truck service is installed in the area. If any future residential development is placed in the area another school site of some five acres will have to be reserved."

The planning board stated that the Planning Board in 1984 recognized that a large area of the town of Meaford, and still is, dormant. In the course of preparing the official plan map, it was recognized that the area made for a bridge across the river — either at Melbourne or Durham Streets.

What do the residents of the area feel of their "forgotten town"? One man countered with the question: Why are the trouble of building all these subdivisions out-of-town when you have such a large area of prime farmland view of the town and surrounding area from a point just west of the town of Meaford? Mr. Murphy with its plots of vacant land stretching down to the river were cited as an interesting development.

Other residents suggested that the area was neglected.

Year of Centennials

Sunderland Fair 100, once held the races on the main street

This is a year of 'centennials' in the history of the town and it was the village of Minden's centennial celebration.

The first fair, "H. W. Speiran's race was held about 1841 in a four-acre field on the farm of the late R. P. Parrot, presently owned by Messrs. Bruce and Ray Dodge.

The late Mr. Samuel Pangman, president of the Minden Charter was the first to hold a race on the main street with the horses being driven out west about a mile and raced back to town.

"Production to date is still lower than 40 per cent heavier than a year ago," says Forshaw. "However, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics indicates that there will be a gradual reduction to the 1980 level. Only a general cut back in production is being urged by the supply and demand in better balance."

How should a farmer adjust to the drop in floor price on October 14th? The floor price is expected to drop from $25 to $23.65 per hundred weight for Grade A carcasses at Toronto.

"The floor price will result in a drop in price of about $2 per pig. This will mean a loss of $200 to $300 per pig. The slowest drop in pig production. The individual farmer is advised to cut back—but not cut out his pigs."

"Now, in this centennial year, the floor price has been set at a joint stock company was formed and the present site was acquired from the Bretherton family, a horse owned by which was blown down two years ago was then built together with the old Agricultural Farm."

A yoke of Oxen was borrowed from the late John and Grace John and Grace and shape up the race track.

FACTS for FARMERS

Some news of special interest to our farm subscribers

Barberry and Buckhorn
Common barberry and European buckhorn are a nightshade and bushes to both the plant breeder and the farmer. A red rust spore smugged into the country by winds from the south can cause a single rust lesion on oats. With Barberry present in the neighborhood, the rust spore can be carried by black spores of stem rust, through infection of a barley variety, to cause a single rust spore each capable of causing a rust infection on cereals. A single barberry bush can produce 6 billion spores. From a production point of view, a farmer cannot afford to have a single barberry within miles of him.

The cereal plant breeder is constantly breeding new varieties of the results of a rusted variety. A stone forms in the bladder and blocks off the water and pressure forces within the bladder and urethra. The urethra finally ruptures and urine escapes into an area around the rupture occurs, the results of a ruptured urethra. The urine seeps downwards to finally clog up the skin around the rupture. It looks as if the animal is suffering from a colic attack. Then the rupture occurs, the result is obtained but all the poison from the escaped urine are being absorbed into the body. We can do little to help the dead steer on our hands," says Dr. Milne.

Feeders of cattlemen in the Western States recognize water belly in the very early stages by what they call a "windy" animal. It looks as if the animal is suffering from a colic attack. Catch Water Belly
In Time, Says Milne
"Act quickly on the first sign of water belly. It mightn't sound like much of an answer but if you've ever lost a steer on account of water belly, you'll know you're losing another one fall. So says Ontario Veterinary

Dr. Milne states this troubling condition is caused by the animal's trying to force the urine down the blocked tube. Farmers who recognize these signs will either themselves money by either shipping the animal off to a veterinarian or away or if it treated right.

PICK RIGHT MATERIALS FOR YOUR HOG HOUSE
Asbestos cement board, aluminum, and galvanized iron do their best job when they're used as a roofing material. It's best to stay away from these materials in any other part of a hog house.

That's what O.A.C. agricultural engineer, F. H. Theakston, found after investigating application methods, costs and performance of six different materials for use in hog houses.

"After the houses were in use for a year we found the plywood siding and roofing and the tongue and groove siding gave the best service," said Theakston. "The plywood roofing did need repainting but it was much superior to the hardboard siding which

Summer Camp for Junior Salts 2,000 Sea Cadets at HMCS Acadia

Sea Cadets from over 160 corps east of Winnipeg receive summer training at HMCS Acadia in Sydney, Nova Scotia. First commissioned in 1956, this base welcomes over 2,000 sea cadets each year for a two-week period. Sailing, whaler-pulling, cutter races, swimming and rowing, round out their winter landside training in seamanship, rifle drill, naval history and related subjects. On Vancouver Island, where this photograph was taken, a similar camp, HMCS Quadra, accommodates approximately 1,000 cadets each year from Western Canada.

For centuries, the tying of knots and splicing of ropes has been an imperative part of every sailor's training. By summer's end you can be certain that these sea cadets will have no "granny" knots in their nautical know-how.

Competition is keen and proficiency is high in sports and seamanship. In each of the summer camps "Cool of the Walk" prizes are awarded to winning teams and individuals. The best all-round cadet receives the coveted "Captain's Prize."

These apprentice sailors may never have to display their sailing skill to save their lives at sea, but they will derive from their training knowledge that will give them hours of pleasure once they become "civilian" again.

A taste of the sailor's life in cadets inspires many to make it their career. At 16½ cadets are eligible for trade training in the regular navy. For cadets who wish to continue their education, several scholarships are offered.

In addition to the regular two-week camp, HMCS Acadia has a seven-week leadership course attended by about 75 cadets annually. This year these cadets formed a royal guard for Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II. Discipline, skill and comradeship in sea cadet training prepare these young lads for a useful role as adult citizens of Canada. Whether their future lies with the Royal Canadian Navy or a career in civilian life, sea cadet summer at HMCS Acadia will not be soon forgotten.

The first million is supposed to be the hardest to accumulate and the last mile the longest to go but the last show of the just concluded series of "The Chevy Show" on T.V. last night was one of its best. If you saw it, didn't feel that way about it too?

A lot of the district's small fry are doing some accounting these days... They're taking inventory of their cash reserves as they make plans to "go to the fair". What fair? Every one goes to the head of the class for answering that question of course — Lindsay Fair, of course.

The feminine touch, that's something and that's just what Mrs. Percy Hill was busy giving her husband's floral exhibit in the Consumer's Bldg. of Lindsay Central Exhibition late Tuesday afternoon.

The morning cup of coffee has probably been the unfair to the jockey was probably dominated by about 4000 R.C. in Mesopotamia and Egypt. It was there as quite a surprise to many people in Lindsay that, during this week that the Klau, Ma, during their uprising in Kenya, 2 Africa, selected the braying qualities of these of these beasts of burden to turn it loose over the "Whoever heard of a jackass whinnying?"

An allegation to the effect that the Lindsay Daily Post and The Watchman-Warrior "bedfellows" considered in some quarters to be stretching his imagination just a shade too far, it would require a bed to turn in a couple of weeks like that.

Next to watching father paper or the partner with apologies to the songster, or put up the following, the third best show is likely to be observed some night when a member of the household has been two hours later than scheduled.

This performance is really quite extraordinary and the poor old eye can't stand to put it on too often because his arteries aren't what they used to be.

Mental illness induced by torturous years in a concentration camp have been blamed for the death of a woman who came to Canada after World War Two.
A coroner's jury at Minden Wednesday ruled that a former Latvian prisoner — Elize Ambrozaitis — whose skeleton was found in a remote area of Stanhope Township, came to her death from natural causes while suffering a mental illness.

The jury ruled that after hearing the evidence presented, they were satisfied that the parts of the skeleton found were those of Mrs. Ambrozaitis who came to her death between July 1955 and 1959.

One of the medical witnesses — Dr. H. S. Thompson, of the Ontario Hospital, testified that Mrs. Ambrozaitis had been a patient of hers in 1953.

The witness related how when the Latvian came to the hospital she was in an extremely apathetic condition, being suspicious of everyone. "She was afraid we were trying to poison her," said the witness.

The witness related that the patient's condition was due to the years she spent in a concentration camp.

Dr. Thompson also revealed that Mrs. Ambrozaitis had been married in Europe but while she was in the camp she had become parted from her husband. When the patient left hospital in September of '53, she appeared to be very well, the witness disclosed.

Mr. William Barry, R. R. 1, Haliburton, told how he came upon the skeleton while fishing a fence on his 250-acre farm.

The witness revealed that after a first examination, the skeleton he came upon a plastic tablecloth with a purple wrapping. He took it to his home, where the farmer said he discovered the skull. Parts of the ribs and the fingers were found buried in the earth near the skull.

Mr. Taylor will tell in this column...

by told how he discovered a bundle of 320 bills partially decayed on a ledge near the remains. It was disclosed by the witness that numerous bones were later found in the area. There was evidence of gnawing by animals, said the officer.

The OPP witness agreed with Crown Attorney L. W. Jordan that the remains had been found in a very remote area in dense bushland.

Dr. W. J. Desmond, from the Attorney General's Laboratory, said the bones were human.

1000 years have passed...
One hundred years have come and gone since Mr. Sam Harris, above, first saw the light of day and Tuesday was his birthday. The day was given special significance for Mr. Harris when members of the Kawartha Chapter of the White Canoe Club paid him a surprise visit on the morning of the anniversary of his birth.

Not only did they pay him a surprise visit, they came bearing gifts. Those who took part in the event were Mr. Ed Williams of the T. Delay start of curling season

Curling will be a little later in starting at Lindsay this year than was first announced.

Speaking for the Lindsay Curling Club on Tuesday, Mr. Al Simpson said the starting date for the first curling season has been changed to November 2. It was originally planned to get moving on October 15.

Mr. Simpson said that the first curling season will be held after the curling club members have had a chance to get into the ice.

Runs this year (to $8 as of the first curling season) but the club spokesman says he believes this figure will probably increase as the season gets into full swing.

Nina Khruchoch
Gray-haired Nina Khruchoch, grey spent part of her time on the west coast — like many another touting grandmother — shopping for the children back home. The women in the Russian party separated from the main party and detoured through a department store (Sears Roebuck) in San Francisco. Mrs. Khruchoch spent about $100 buying new toys, — and, young stockings. She confessed that some of the items were for grandchild, yet to be born. One fellow customer commented, "even though she is the wife of the head of Russia, she seems to be just a grandmother."

Baby's Constipation

When baby's bowels are constipated and when the mother cannot get him to defecate, it is a very common problem. The mother is often told to give her baby a sugar cube or a piece of fruit. But this is not the best way to get the baby to defecate. The best way is to give the baby a small amount of water. This will help the baby to defecate and will also help to keep the baby healthy.

Wed in St. Paul's, Lindsay

This charming couple seen here signing the register following their marriage in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Lindsay, are Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Beggs. Formerly Marie Woltowicz, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Woltowicz of Dryden, Ontario, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Beggs of Cameron. Bishop Townsend presided the ceremony.

St. Paul's Anglican Church, Lindsay, Ontario, was the setting for the marriage of Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Woltowicz of Dryden, Ontario, to Robert Bruce Beggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Beggs of Cameron. Bishop Townsend officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white pure silk organza. The scalloped neckline was embellished with French lace and touched with sequins and seed pearls.

The long sleeves were tapered to a point to correspond with the dropped train. The skirt was a full, floor-length, tapered skirt featuring a wide double point back which was decorated with lace appliques and sequins. A crown of French lace, dotted with sequins and pearls held her scalloped finger-tip veil which was also ornamented with pearls to match the gown. She carried a cascade of pink carnations and white Stephanotis.

The bride's sister, Pauline Woltowicz, as maid-of-honour and Mrs. Audrey Beggs as bridesmaid wore bronze pure silk street length gowns. Their feather head bands and accessories were bone shade and they carried cascades of bronze and yellow mums. Valerie Lelava, niece of the bride, was dressed in a yellow silk organza dress and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Best man was Orville Beggs, the groom's brother. Ushers were Paul Woltowicz, Cecil Beggs, and Alex Ellison. Soloist was Mr. Eric Freeborn. Before the ceremony he sang "O Perfect Love." During the service, The Lord is my Shepherd and during the signing of the Register—"I Love Thee" by Greg.

Organist was Bruce Cooper. At Victoria Hall in Cameron, where the reception was held, the bride's mother received in a gray beanie with corsage of pink sweetheart roses, as suited by the groom's mother, wearing a rousene tishay with corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

For going away, the bride chose a green wool suit, with a pink patent shoe and bags. She wore an orchid corsage.

For many events

Lindsay Central Exhibition grounds were apparently put to a variety of uses in former years just as they are today. Take this gathering of military and other prominent people for some unidentified occasion (possibly the presentation of colors) at the fair ground. Readily identified in the picture are: second from left, foreground, the late Sir Stan Hughes, then on the way to the peak of his military career: Dr. Herbert Bruce, former Ontario lieutenant-governor, standing next to the man with the dark felt hat and frock coat who is believed to be Dr. Mulligan and immediately on his right, the late John Carey, founder of the lumbering business which is still identified with the family. How many more can you identify?

"TITE-LAP" CONSTRUCTION

locks out the weather

The perfect fit of overlapping ribs in adjoining sheets of Eastern Steel's patented "Tite-Lap" roofing and siding guarantees waterproofing for your future building. Both at side and end laps, this strong "Tite-Lap" keeps out driving wind and rain. The "Tite-Lap" can be laid right over old wooden shingles or asphalt roofing without removing the original roofing material. Each 5-rib sheet covers a full 32" width. Eastern Steel manufactures several distinct types of metal roofing and siding—each designed with a different application in mind. To help you choose the right covering, write today for your free copy of Bulletin 140, showing the best roofing, siding and accessories for the covering job you have in mind.

Remember, when applying Eastern Steel roofing or siding be sure to use "Preston" metal sheet lead-lined nails—the roofing nails with the lead seal underneath the head which stops the moisture with rustproof, weathertight seal.

This is the way they used to show for the fair a few years ago at Tendon Falls. High model cars and low helmets were the order of the day with a dash of flag waving thrown in for good measure. Note the Union Jack in the background, a fact which might be interpreted to mean that the people of that day believed it was the flag Canadians should fly. At Lindsay Central Exhibition this year Union Jacks and the Stars and Stripes occupy the grandstand standard.

Mr. K's visit (continued)

Soviet Premier Khrushchev will visit an town production today . . . which produces hybrid corn . . . in the form of meat. The touring Russian's host, Rosewell Gard, will show the Soviet chief some of the most modern methods used by Americans to get the most from the land. The hearty-eating Russian will have a traditional farm feast of chicken and ham—and of course, corn—at the Gard farm near Cayuga, Iowa.

Last night Khrushchev had something to say about farming and world peace as he addressed crowds in Lincoln. He said that the Russians would close the production gap between them and their more advanced American counterparts. Khrushchev also called for increased talks between President Eisenhower and the good of world peace.

Violence in Iraq

New outbreaks of widespread anti-government violence have been reported in Iraq. Travelers reaching Beirut, Lebanon, say the 14-month-old regime of Premier Kassem is being propped up by Baghdad in northern oil centers. Speculation in the Middle East is increasing that Kassem and his military imposed regime are about to fall.

Strike in Argentina

A 48-hour general strike has begun in Argentina. In a first few hours strikers walked out already paralysing radio communications . . . halted bus service . . . and closed down newspaper plants. The government has taken steps to dissolve the Communist party—part of the organizing force behind the strike.

Ready to accept plan?

Informed sources in Paris say Algerians are ready to accept French President De Gaulle's peace plan . . . under certain conditions. The rebels reportedly are seeking guarantees that the United Nations will continue to determine Algeria's new status . . . that Algeria's right to independence be recognized . . . and that there be no partitioning of Algerian territory.

Fire on nuclear ship halted

A fire that threatened damage to the N.S. Savannah, the world's first nuclear merchant ship, has been brought under control. The two-day fire broke out in Camden, New Jersey, some 500 feet from the berth where the nuclear vessel is being completed.

Five children die in fire

Five children died this morning when a fire swept their frame home at Mine, North Dakota. Mrs. Carol Newhouse and three of her children escaped from the smoke-clogged house . . . but five other youngsters apparently were overcome by smoke and unable to escape. Authorities have not yet determined the cause of the fire.

Who's running what?

A Liberal member of parliament called in Ottawa today that he had to receive clearance from American authorities to visit Dry Line base in his McKenzie River riding last month. M.P. Mervyn Hardie says that despite claims by Prime Minister Diefenbaker and Northern Affairs Minister G.D. Blevins that Canadian citizens did not need U.S. permission to visit radar stations on Canadian soil.

Mysterious luminous object

The crew of a Transatlantic flight says it saw a mysterious luminous object in the skies over Labrador last night. On arrival in Paris, the flight attendant said the object was travelling at a very high altitude with a shaft of light running through it which they thought was the tail of a comet. The Canadian aircraft rode burning itself up above the atmosphere.

Sticky business this time

Under hot sunny and humid, temperatures last-minute pressure to get the 1968 Lincoln Continental Exhibition, got underway this morning. Latest weather forecast received shortly before noon revealed that the weatherman was forecasting thunderstorms for the opening day of the 100th annual fair.

Today, Wednesday, is unofficial opening day. Tomorrow, at approximately 2 p.m., Premier Leslie Frost will officially open the fair.

Visitors to Lindsay as well as local residents are being reminded by various agencies that most of Lindsay's business establishments will remain open Thursday, Citizens' Day, and the proclaimed half-holiday.

Today's half of fare will include an excellent pony show and saddle races, catfish and swine championing show and the judging of art, photography and handicraft exhibits. At 9.45 tonight the annual western calf rodeo will be staged. Prior to this the Junior Farmers' Show sponsored by

C of C may stage show at the Arena

Dr. Peter Gill, Vice-president of the Lindsay Chapter of the Lions Club, revealed to "The Post" today that the chapter is exploring the possibility of staging a show at the Keweenaw Arena before the ice is put in for the winter season.

The speaker disclosed that the type of show to be staged had not yet been decided upon.

Speaking of Tuesday night's Grand Old Opry show which the chapter sponsored, Gill said he understood about 500 persons were in attendance. The Vice-president refused the chapter had not made any money out of the show but it lost no money either said the doctor.

Out-of-town press in trouble again

A segment of the out-of-town press is in the soup again today. According to one report, the "Post" is being asked to pay for a "Globe & Mail" for quite a while this morning because the newspaper got sidetracked on its way to Peterborough. Newsletters here say they can't understand how anyone could confuse Lindsay with Peterborough, down-in-the-valley community some 28 miles south of the former up-country town.

Would have liked to have taken part in lumberjack contest

Mr. Roy Brown of Frost Insurance Agencies said today he wished he had known "The Post" was going to start a lumberjack contest. "We would have offered window space to display samples of really big ones," he declared.

Loyal to the core!

Loyal to the core . . . That's the way 81-year-old Henry O. Crowder of 30 George St. east, when it comes to newspapers. And he's especially loyal to "The Post," a fact he makes no bones about.

Mr. Crowder has been living at Little Britain in the past and today he is in Lindsay. Lindsay, while in that beautiful village to the southwest of Lindsay, Mr. Crowder was a subscriber to "The Post."

"The Post," a weekly newspaper published by Wilson and Wilson Ltd. in addition with "Lindsay Daily Post." When he moved to Lindsay, he wanted a weekly paper to continue reaching him, unaware of the fact that it is mailed only to outlying areas.

When he called at the office and wanted to know what was going on? He hadn't been to the paper for a while and he couldn't understand why. When the situation was explained to him and he was made to refund the money on the balance of the subscription term he declared "I'd rather have the paper than my money back" and the latest word is that he's going to stay.

The accident occurred two miles south of the village of Bobcaygeon. A spokesman at the RMHS said Mr. Mathison had sustained a fractured jaw and possible concussion.

WHITE SOX CLINCH PENNANT

The Chicago White Sox clinched the pennant last night—their first in 40 years.

They did it by beating the second place Indians, 4-2, in a thriller that was not settled until shortstop Luis Aparicio started a double play in the ninth inning. It was victory No. 21 of the season and No. 270 of his career for veteran Early Wynn. Chicago now leads by four and one-half games. The White Sox have only three games left to play—the Indians only four.

CHICAGO GOES WILD

Chicago went wild when the go-go Sox clinched the pennant. A horn-tossing motorcycle band, brass bands and air raid sirens were turned on. One 19-year-old girl became hysterical when the Sox clinched, and was only half-conscious an hour later as she hurried off to the airport to join thousands of other fans in welcoming her heroes' plane.

TODAY'S SCHEDULE

The major league of six baseball games for Wednesday, three in each league. In the National league it will be San Francisco at Chicago in the afternoon, with Los Angeles at St. Louis and Milwaukee at Pittsburgh under the lights. Cincinnati and Philadelphia are idle. In the American League, Kansas City at Detroit and Baltimore at Boston in the day, New York at Washington tonight with Cleveland and Chicago idle.

HE WON'T BE PLAYING

Argo football star David Mann will not play this year. Argo management has benched him until the end of his trial. But the trial will not be heard until the winter session of the assizes which opens around January. The autumn assizes which ended today, did not hear the charge of possession of narcotics against Mann because one of the three other persons jointly charged with him is appealing her conviction. The crown would not proceed with the charges separately.

LEAFS SKATE TO 5-3 VICTORY

The National Hockey League Toronto Maple Leafs skated to a 5-3 victory over the American Hockey League Cleveland Barons in an exhibition test in Peterborough, Ontario, last night. The Leafs, with most of their regulars enjoying a night's rest, spotted the Barons a 1-0 lead in the first period, and then pumped four pucks behind Clint Meyer, and coasted despite the barons' rookie church Adamson in the Cleveland nets for the final 30 minutes.

SLIGHT FAVORITE

Middweight Roy Calhoun is a slight 5-6 favorite to continue his comeback by taking young Rudy Ellis tonight at Chicago, Calhoun—once a ranking contender, lost two of his four last bouts—lost to Bobo Olson and Tiger

Sugar Kings Win Governor's Cup

Havana Sept. 23 (UPI)—The Cuban Sugar Kings won the Governor's Cup in the first national League playoffs by the second. Ray Shearer beat the Richmond Virginians in an infield grounder and score, 1-0, last night becoming the second successive single widely-partisan crowd headed by Prime Minister Fidel Castro. Zuloaga.

The Sugar Kings scored the second-inning killing the bases with one out at the very moment that Castro arrived at the stadium. Sanchez plucked out of the jam by Fernando Riel and Johnson and getting losing pitcher Bill Short to hit into a force out.

The Virginians collected only five hits off combined hurling of Raul Sanchez, and the following is the executive elected at this meeting for the season of 1968:

President—A. Gleason; Immediate Past-President—Vern O'Connor; Vice-President—Frank Coulson; Secretary—Mansley Clarke; Treasurer—Bob Henry; Captain—A.L. Richardson; Handicap Committee Chairman—Felix Karry; Publicity Chairman—Jim Deaneau; Social Committee Chairman—Jack Davison; Membership Committee Chairman—Bill Whyte; Green Committee Chairman—Laurie Strachan; House Committee Chairman—Bob Mark.

Not one, but two, new industries come to town

Second industry escaped mention in press storm

Third new industry gets Adjutment Committee's OK

Another new industry for Lindsay... During the week which preceded and followed the announcement of the move here by the Schultz The Tasting Co. Ltd., no mention was made of the move here of a new industry, which will employ between 15 - 25 local men.

Kent Buffing Specialty—an independent company servicing the Schultz industry—will start moving equipment next from Wallaceburg next week.

The new industry has leased the Newburg Furniture Manufacturing premises on Colborne Street, a short distance from the Schultz factory.

NOTICED... along the way

Magistrate R. I. Moore had a ring-side seat for a demonstration of some wild driving on William St. north Thursday afternoon. A driver shot his car out from the curb like a rocket taking off from Cape Canaveral. Asphalt flung under the screaming tires as he veered as if it roared past the magistrate's car. He did not have his choice. "These matters are governed by the Bills of Exchange Act," he explained, adding that this indicates abiding of official proclamations at the various levels of government.

St. Mary's Church, Lindsay, is preparing its Centennial Celebration. In order to commemorate the occasion which, to quote the church bulletin, "represents only one in a hundred years," a special Centennial Volume is being prepared. The book will contain, among other historical backdrops, a picture of Rev. Dr. Chisholm who came here in 1848 and remained here as pastor for eight years.

Barber Walter Richards and Barbara Rank are in a fair way of getting involved in a controversy over the seasonal closure of the Barber Spicers said it had snowed at Haliburton Lake the day before (Wednesday).

A customer, Earl Gillies, who lives about 12 miles northwest of Lindsay told him it snowed there on Wednesday. He's hoping the two don't come to blows over snow or there's apt to be some hair fly'n! Heaven help the man in the chair if he's not waving the clippers around.

TEN ADDITIONAL FIRE BELLS FOR COUNTY HOME

Ten additional fire alarm bells are to be installed at the County Home for the Aged as an added safety system it was revealed to "The Post" last week.

At a meeting of the Management Committee of the Victoria County Institution, it was disclosed that the tender for the work had been awarded to Mr. Ross McGahay, of Lindsay.

Lindsay here in October embouling in its early stages a bout ten persons... This figure is expected to increase to about 25 employees within a few months. "The Post" learns from Mr. Otto Walter, manager of the Lindsay Plant of Rosegate Plastics International, Ltd., King Street, told "The Post" that a new plant to manufacture plastic products will be opening in the basement of Mr. Ray Weldon's farm machinery building, corner of Elgin and Fenelon Roads.

It was revealed that a new process in the manufacture of plastic products in which the company holds a license for the United Kingdom and Canada will be carried out at the plant.

Personnel sewer in the news again

Lindsay's lady councillor claims wrong trees blamed for trouble

Town Engineer J. N. Turberville has last week asked to exhaust all possible methods of cleaning out the troublesome block sewer at Adelaide Street, before a decision on the installation of a new sewer is made.

The joint meeting of the Management Committee of the Victoria County Home for the Aged and the Advisory Committee of the Board of Works, agreed that every avenue should be explored before the Town Engineer is asked to submit a report.

LCI gas tenders greatly at variance?

It was disclosed at Wednesday's meeting of the Trustees of the Victoria High School Area Board, that two tenders had been received for the installation of gas equipment at the Lindsay Collegiate Institute, but that the matter be referred for further consideration.

Trustees heard there had been a great deal of variance between the two tenders.

NOTICED... along the way

That Echoes of Toronto's CNE are still being heard at Lindsay is the opinion of many who received showing Mrs. Wm. J. Murphy of Lindsay presenting to Ken Lingo of Galt, the Murphy trophy for the best uttered Holstein at the Exhibition.

Those heard there had been a great deal of variance between the two tenders.

The Old Farmer's Almanac the weather nail right on the head for the current period. It sums up the forecast for the week this way: "All in all, here comes September."

According to the almanac, "This is the time to go mowing off to anywhere—if you can find the road. Dad used to say the road was a mile long on little byways. The whole family went along too, when you find the road. When he felt tired or when he was a little bit out of pull, up a dead mosey bank, and fall asleep with his hat over his eyes, the road was a mile long, and get into berries and briars while his mother sat by the car with her sunshade up. She wasn't full of mosey banks and moseying." Sounds kind of inviting, doesn't it?

There's an awful lot of talking going the rounds in Lindsay these days about 'jumping the gun'. Now that's quite an expression when you think about it for a minute or two. It's possible, while doing this, to compare up all sorts of mental pictures. Actually, it would depend on the type of gun one was jumping how exciting the game would be. If it was one of the so-called 'big guns', the feat should attract a great deal of interest, especially if the jumper fell short of the mark.

It was suggested by Mr. McQuarrie that if citizens were asked to tap into the decision regarding the percentage of costs between the county and the town would have to be arrived at.

Mrs. Doris Acheson declared that any suggestion that the pine fees were causing the blockage was unfounded. The speaker said she could prove this. The speaker revealed that the troublesome blockage is located between two large maple and apple trees. "Cut these down and burn out the roots," suggested the Councilor.

Warden E. Murphy said that in agreement with Mrs. Acheson's suggestion.

"The sewer has not been flushed off," declared Mrs. Acheson. The speaker suggested the flushing out of the first department to get this task carried out as another factor in eliminating the problem.

Other members present including Hester Herman Buckley and Mr. Harry Deyell, said they would go along with Mrs. Acheson's suggestion.

Mr. McQuarrie said he would see that all possibilities for cleaning out the sewer would be exhausted before Town Engineer Timberlake is asked to report on the matter. The speaker said he felt if an $8,000 dollar could be saved by the proposed work, all avenues would be explored.

Seeing is believing. It was reported a while back that Milligan Lodge was in the process of being sold. A visit to the lodge indicates that such is not the case. It's the same well-known guest home with its wonder—Mrs. Hazel

In the two tenders submitted, it was suggested that more information would be needed before the board could make any final decision on the matter.

The management committee in a report to the board suggested that the matter be referred for further consideration.

Mrs. Arvine Bird, of Ingram—still at the helm.

Kent Street was blocked last night at the western entrance to the town and at Adelaide. It was digging a trench across the street. Who would have thought the Khrushchev's visit would have gotten people so stirred up.

The Ontario Municipal Board later informed the Victoria High School Area Board that disapproval of the board's decision because the reason given by the board was not considered "valid" by its members.

At Wednesday night's meeting it was revealed that the Ontario Municipal Board has given the proposed plans for the addition their approval. Originally L. T. Braunton Co. Ltd. of Lindsay, provol.

The long and the short

The long and the short of it is that as chimneys are concerned is illustrated in the two chimneys at the Ross Memorial Hospital on which an expansion program is now being carried out. The tallest of the two is the one designed to service the expanded hospital's heating plant while the short one is likely to be made short work of as soon as the project has advanced to the proper stage. Duck ducks tiger, everything's ducky

Bravery can lead to fame for ducks as well as men.

Take the case of a small duck destined to become a tiger's next meal at the Kyojo, Japan. The duck was tossed into the tiger's cage. The big cat charged, but the duck jumped into the tiger's swimming pool.

The unnamed duck held his perch upon a rock in the pool for a full day. Now it is the spacious cage of its own and has become one of the zoo's leading attractions.—UPI.

Ring Rot Infection Kept to Minimum Inspection of all fields of commercial potatoes in Ontario is now underway across the province. In a concerted effort to control the spread of bacterial ring rot disease this year, the Ontario Potato Board is prevalent in practically all potato-producing areas of the province. The disease is and is considered a major problem in many areas. It is described by plant pathologists as a "slow" and "destructive seed-borne disease to be found anywhere." By eddition, and enforcement measures taken on this disease in Ontario have been kept to a minimum. Fortunately, the disease does not remain in the soil, and infected tubers may be used with safety and confidence for human consumption. In addition to a staff of eighteen part-time inspectors appointed this season of the year, all regular members of the Seed Potato Certification Service of the Canada Department of Agriculture, and the Ontario Potato Board, will have the power to enter premises belonging to growers and similar to inspect potatoes. This service to growers and dealers is provided with the help of the Ontario Potato Board. It is an effort to maintain and improve the quality of this important basic food commodity.

Request for field inspection should be made at once to an Agricultural Representative in your County or District, or to the nearest Extension Office Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

Three weeks in Russia on 'her own', Teddy Forman relates experiences to Lindsay B & PW Club

The Lindsay B & P W Club started their 1959-1960 season with a dinner meeting held at the Legion Hall on Monday, September 21st. The Club was very honoured to have as their Guest speaker Miss Edna "Teddy" Forman, a former Lindsay girl and now of radio and T.V. fame who was introduced by Harriett Bate and thanked on behalf of the Club by Ruth White. Miss Forman gave a very interesting and informative talk on her recent three weeks spent in Russia "On her own". She also showed a number of coloured slides which she had taken during her stay in Russia.

The Club was very pleased to have a number of guests at this meeting who had been in Russia, school teachers, school mates and friends of "Teddy" "It was just like old home week for 'Teddy' and her mother."

During the course of the evening, Miss Maureen Juck rendered two beautiful songs accompanied by Mrs. Helen Fulton, at the piano.

The Mystery draw donated by President Ruth Smith was won by Miss Mary Curtis.

It was announced that the Bursary of $100.00 donated by the Club each year, had been forwarded to a deserving student to help further her education.

Evelle Boyfield was presented with a small gift by Frances O'Leary on behalf of the Club on her approaching marriage.

The President announced that plans had been finalized for the rummage sale at the Legion Hall on Saturday, October 3rd and also for the Coffee Party on October 7th at the home of Mabel Adams Johnson. The Coffee Party Business Women's Week which is the week of October 3th.

President Ruth Smith is to Conference to be held in North Bay after in October. The meeting was closed by repeating the Club Collect after which members and friends gathered around to talk to Miss Forman and her mother.

Head of Christ Painting Presented to Salvation Army

Haliburton (PNS) — At the regular evening service in the Salvation Army on Monday evening a very special service was held when the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Ward presented a painting, Solomon's Head of Christ to the church they had worshipped in.

During the service Mr. William Gladwin was at the piano and Miss Betty Barnum sang very sweetly, "His eye is on the sparrow." Lieut. James Thompson chose for his topic, "The Two Great Commandments" and the text was "Master Which is the Great Commandment?" for this dedication service.

The members of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Ward were all present at this unique service.

The church was filled, there was standing room only.

Salvation Army Home League

On Wednesday the first meeting of the season was held in the Salvation Army Hall, with Mrs. Capt Stevenson in the chair. After a short devotional period the report of the delegates to Home League Camp in June, was given by Mrs. L. Robertson.

The account of crafts learned at this camp on Roblin Lake, and the inspiring devotional periods and warm fellowship proved very interesting to the ladies present.

After the singing of the theme song, "If I have wounded any soul today," the meeting was closed with prayer and a cup of tea and cookies were served by Mrs. Linklater and Miss Dorothy Sine.

On the following Wednesday the ladies met again, with the theme of the meeting being "Mirrors". After singing of a hymn and prayer, the Scripture was read by Mrs. Elsie Langley and Mrs. Carey gave a reading on "God's Beauty Parlor".

A novel feature for the meeting was then held, having each woman tell most pleasant and interesting experience of summer. As some had travelled to Cornwall to see the Queen and north places of interest these short, impromptu talks were enjoyed very much.

After singing of chorus, "Come beautiful Christ," an article entitled "Mirrors of the Soul" was read by Mrs. L. Robertson. Mrs. Stevens then gave a short message on James 1:23-25. All messages and readings pointed up the fact that true beauty comes from within when a life is consecrated to God.

Plans were made for next week's meeting when several of the ladies will model hats they trimmed on these "Safety Hats".

Tea and sandwiches and visiting time was then enjoyed by all present.

The Home League is a group of ladies of every denomination who gather each Wednesday at 2:30 in the Salvation Army Hall. The four-fold program of this League is Home-Life, Spiritual Devotion Service and Friendship. If you are not busy on that afternoon and would care to attend, a warm welcome is waiting for you.

Evening Auxiliary Plan Tea and Sales Table

Little Britain (PNS) — The September meeting of the Ladies' British Evening Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Alvin Taylor on Wednesday, September 16.

The President, Muriel Corneil opened the meeting with a poem "If a body be a body," followed by prayer.

Roll call was answered by fifteen members and there were five visitors present. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Verma Mark.

It was moved and seconded that the auxiliary have an afternoon tea and sales table. The afternoon tea will be held in the United Church basement.

The worship period was given by Mrs. Jan. Nowakowski and her group.

The theme was "Pawlik workers with God." Hymn "Nearer My God To Thee," was sung. Scripture reading was given by Dorcas Taylor. Prayer by Helen Palmer, followed with the Lord's Prayer in unison.

The offering was received and dedicated. One verse of hymn 385 was sung, followed by Dorcas Taylor. A chapter of the Study Book on Africa, given in pairs by Jan. Helen, Ruth and Dorcas.

The group in charge served a tasty lunch and a social time spent by all.

Helen Thornton moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Taylor for opening her home and to group in charge.

34 killed in plane crash

A commercial airliner has exploded and crashed in East Central Texas near the town of Buffalo, killing 34 persons aboard. A local family reports hearing bells falling on the roof on their home... then the impact and blast of the wreckage hitting the ground. A witness says it looked like a flaming meteor going down. The Braniff Airways flight out of Houston was bound for Dallas, Washington and New York.

At least 5,000 people dead

At least five-thousand persons are reported dead and missing in typhoon-ravaged Japan. Typhoid and dysentery are reportedly sweeping the flooded areas around Nagoya. Latest casualty figures also number the injured at more than 10,000 with one and one-half million persons homeless.

Gracie weakened

Hurricane Gracie-weakened to a tropical storm-has crossed into North Carolina near Charlotte and threatens fish ponds. Several in parts of Maryland and Pennsylvania. Experts say the storm could damage nearly all of North Carolina's 400-million-dollar tobacco crop. At least two persons have been reported killed in ravaged South Carolina.

Hannah heads for mainland

Another hurricane now named Hannah is moving toward the mainland 970 miles east of Palm Beach, Florida. The chief of the Miami Weather Bureau comments: "It is too early to say definitely that Hannah will move inland, but we will be extremely fortunate if she doesn't." Carrying winds up to 100 miles per hour, Hannah does not as yet threaten any land areas.

Eisenhower personally appeals

President Eisenhower has made a personal appeal to industry leaders to resume negotiations and settle the 75-day-old U.S. steel strike. The industry leaders appeared at the White House today at the request of the President. Later, he will see union officials.

Explore co-ordinated disarmament

Government sources have disclosed the U.S. and Britain have begun working out a co-ordinated Allied Disarmament policy. The need to align Western armaments cutting ideas has prompted the talks. The sources say France, Canada, Italy and other members of the Western negotiating team at Geneva will join in the talks already begun.

Another peaceful co-existence appeal

Soviet Premier Khrushchev made another call for peaceful co-existence as he arrived in Peking for the tenth anniversary of the Red China take-over. The Soviet leader told an airport crowd he was quoted: "We must do everything within our power to clear the atmosphere and create conditions for friendship among the people."

496 immigrants arriving

The liner "Vulcanic" is scheduled to disembark 496 immigrants from Mediterranean countries today in Halifax. Most of the immigrants will be transferred to trains for Central and Western Canada. Another 727 passengers will be disembarked at New York.

Wheat yield average 16 per acre

The Saskatchewan wheat pool predicts a provincial wheat crop this season of some 237-million bushels. This represents an average of 16-bushels an acre. The pool cautions its estimate is based on incomplete returns because of harvesting delays.

small audience on the grandstand. It is much nicer to show to a full house. The quality of the ponies was good, the pony show in the line class winning first. Owned by Hayes Bros. it was a nice looking stud. The quality of sadders was also well noted.

"We were disappointed that our good pony developed lameness in his hind leg and was unable to be shown any more that day. It is now recovered the trouble having been caused by a faulty shoe. I had at least 50 people ask me where the ponies were and sorry to say, I had to tell them the show was by then all over. There is a great interest in this part of the show and I think there should be a display throughout the duration of the fair, including participation in the grand parade of livestock on Saturday afternoon.

PERSONALS

Miss Margaret Harris' has returned to Peterborough, after spending a week with her sister here in town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Magahay of Belleville, visited relatives here on the weekend and attended the exhibition.

"I had the pleasure of being on the board of Lindsay Fair for around 15 years and I think this was about the best showing in a long time. The show in front of the grandstand was top notch and the stand was well filled. Saturday's crowd, I believe, was one of the largest I have seen at the fair.

"Through my long illness this year I had to take less interest in showing and my son David carried on, doing a good job.

"I wish Lindsay Central Exhibition the very best of luck."

Legion Leafs 1959 Champs

Behind the steady pitching of George Babecek, the Legion Leafs emerged from the playoffs as the champs for 1959. The smaller Moose Lodge boys tried valiantly but could not out-leaf George's slants at all. The lay-off of a few weeks along with the cooler weather definitely had an effect on the play.

The "Pop Ivy" trophy will be presented to the winners on presentation night, date to be decided upon sometime soon. This might be a good time to mention that the following people (fish service) towards the boys: Bob Puffer, manager of the Kinnelon Indians, whose team headed the league at the end of the schedule. Bob Bovie, manager of the Moose Lodge entry and his assistant, Tom McLean, whose team lost out in the finals. Owen Johnson and Gerald Tracey, whose Legion Leafs were victorious, and Bill May, who managed the Botany Braves.

The team management says "We would also like to take this opportunity to thank the very much all those who took time from their own activities to inspire the ball games for us. Also to Fred Emerson and the Trent Valley Bakeries for their kind donations which helped make the tournament the best ever."

Stroud. The meeting opened with the singing of the Ode and repeating the Mary Stewart Collect and Lord's Prayer in unison.

Fourteen members answered the roll call by naming a Canadian export. The minutes were read and approved and the treasurer's report showed a balance of $500.01. Collection amounted to $1.80 and two fees were paid.

McQuarrie submits progress report to Council

Failure of the subdivision to supply necessary information to Council has been blamed for slowing down progress on a request for subdivision services by Springfield Gardens, Ops Township.

Councillor J. McQuarrie made this charge at a special meeting of Lindsay's Council last night.

Chairman of a three-man committee appointed to meet with representatives of Ops Township to study the proposed supplying of services to the subdivision, said the parties met on Sept. 1. Mr. McQuarrie called the joint meeting "very harmonious."

Outlining briefly the items discussed at the meeting the chairman revealed that despite continued unanimity had been reached on all matters discussed.

Mr. McQuarrie reminded Council that Lindsay's Council has no engineering department. Things discussed the speaker said, included plan, fire and garbage collection, street cleaning, and snow removal.

There are many problems this application brings out and the Ops Council are in a position," declared Mr. McQuarrie.

The chairman said as soon as all details had been worked out, the application would be drafted to be entered into the two councils.

Outlining briefly the problem is the failure of the subdivision to furnish us with the material requested of him, declared Councillor McQuarrie. The speaker revealed material requested as a basis for clarifying charges for the sewer plant had not been forthcoming from the subdivision.

The chairman disclosed that Town Clerk Alhey had requested this information of other municipalities in order to assist the Lindsay and Ops committees to arrive at a satisfactory decision.

Councillor McQuarrie reminded Council that they still had to make the big decision "whether they wanted to sell services to an outside municipality."

It was stated by the chairman that he proposed to wait until the week of Oct. 1 to await further details before drafting an agreement. "I hope to have a full report on the matter," stated Mr. McQuarrie.

Mayor Burrows said he felt that the Ops Council and his committee had a debt of gratitude for their support on this problem.

It is evident that the Ops Council is not sleeping on this matter," stated his warning.

The press release made available to only one outside newspaper alleged Town Council was "decidedly unimpaired." The release was attributed to the principal figure in the subdivision, Mr. Stoller.

Mayor Lloyd Burrows revealed at Monday night's Town Council meeting, that earlier that evening he had rescued 15-20 children from a burning building on William Street north.

The mayor said he was present at the outbreak which occurred at the premises formerly occupied by the Ont. Dept. of Land and Forests. "There were about 15-20 children working around the building when it was burning. I was the first to arrive and I was the last to leave."

Reeve Bruce Maidens said he watched the fire from his office window and he saw Police Constable William Mosley take the children away.

Reeve Maidens suggested the fire chief had the authority to order anyone from any burning building. "He has absolute authority at a fire," said the reeve.

It was pointed out by mayor Burrows that Chief Arnold Watson was on the second floor fighting the fire when the children were rescued. The children were wandering around the premises.

Fire Chief Watson revealed Tuesday that the outbreak had been caused by the careless distribution of a cigarette butt. The chief estimated damage to the building at $1,500.

Don't panic or be pressured, Pepper declares

"We should not panic nor allow ourselves to be pressured regarding this new industry of a proposed subdivision," said Councillor Gordon Pepper, addressing Town Council Monday.

Mr. Pepper made the remarks during a discussion on housing accommodation available in Lindsay.

Industrial Chairman Mel DeGroot prior to the remarks suggested to Council a survey should be conducted to ascertain the need for more rental type houses here.

Mr. DeGroot reminded Council he had previously suggested this, together with a suggestion that, as a temporary measure, trailers should be allowed to move here. The chairman said he had no intention of stirring up a hornet's nest and creating scare headlines in a newspaper by this suggestion. He stressed the point that permission was intended to be only of a temporary nature.

Chatterbox

— by Millicent —

There's little similarity between the bit on shelves in the town the modern American family has found in the last few years ago. And the change has captured the attention of sociologists, psychologists, and the government.

The U.S. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare—Arthur Flemming—has warned, "Now, perhaps more than ever, the family is under attack. It is being threatened with new and more serious dangers of survival and functioning in a rapidly changing era."

The situation tends to give mother a more equal voice in family affairs. And to some extent, it leaves junior and older children more free to their own devices.

The search for economic abundance moves families from place to place for better job opportunities develop. Children trail along and change schools. Little sense of security and permanence remains. The experts say our abundance has produced children overstimulated by constant activity—a kind of sensory bombardment. Youngsters really more and more on processed entertainment—movies, television and rock and roll.

The schools are rocked more of the education and discipline of children—a, an assignment of more by parents. Community youth groups are given the job of providing recreation and discipline. — and Sunday School is assigned the task of ethical guidance and spiritual teaching of youth. Psychologists agree the child is being brought up piecemeal.

The cracking of the old family image has sparked a game for a substitute for the development and expression of growth. There are also statistical reasons for the new complexion of American family life. First, the growth in the number of families partly follows a trend toward earlier marriage. In recent years, the average woman has had every two brides married when about 20 years old, and her husband a little more than two years older.

Store them in a shallow tray, spread out in a single layer, so that any that may be rotting. Light is not essential. Do not let the temperature go below 45 degrees or above 70 degrees.

Pumpkins and squash must be fully mature before being placed into storage. Cut the vines, leaving the stem on. Pick them in a warm location for 3 to 4 weeks so they can cure properly before being stored. Then, space

Today's Household Hint

"There are two ways of roasting chicken. For the pan method, rub the skin with oil and brush with a generous amount of salted or melted shortening. Place the chicken breast side up, and roast in a shallow baking pan or open roaster. Cover with a double thickness of cheese cloth and melted shortening and roast.

Another method uses aluminium foil. Cut a piece of heavy aluminium foil large enough to cover the bird, and one-half times the length of the bird. Place chicken in the center of the foil, and bind generously with seasoned melted shortening, bring fold over the bird. Fold edges together, and place in a shallow baking pan or open roaster and roast.

He said that he never felt like a man until he was interviewed in the subject many years ago when he was trying to make a picture, and considered that if there was a fashionable woman in a picture, it was possible to date it within a couple of years of the day in a nineteenth century picture, and within six or seven years in an eighteenth century one.

The girls attempted to display their talents during the first part of the evening. They seemed more at home in their dancing than in their singing. Most of the girls sang, some of them forgot lyrics, several of them sang out of tune.

made some movements more or less in time with some music, and one of them just looked a little nervous.

The winner sang a song she had written herself. She sang it without accompaniment.

Board praises Kavaleers exhibitors praise board

Lindsay Central Exhibition doesn't establish any new records financially or from the point of view of attendance. That is the conclusion it did stage one of the best agricultural shows in its history. The board of directors, Manager Newton Wilson has drawn from preliminary reports submitted by the main exhibitors after such matters. Mr. Nels Bradburn.

Mr. Bradburn was indicted on Sunday and specific tons to attendance and revenue were not available. However, Mr. Wilson said, on the basis of preliminary tabulations it would appear that gross revenue in the vicinity of $30,000 representing an actual paid adult attendance of 72,000 people. He pointed out also that for the first days of the fair children were the main attraction. The first day children had a pay admission was Saturday. People who witnessed the grandstand performance have told representatives of the exhibitors they never saw anything to equal it at Lindsay.

"... They were at a loss to know how such outstanding talent could have been brought to Lindsay..." Some even went so far as to say the big Shrine Circus was opening this week at Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens had a professional performance in the press has made no mention of this.

Strike up the Band

Mr. Wilson said the thing which really pleased him was the fact that the people most was the spectacular performance turned in by the band, the Kavaleers. "They were magnificent, and they deserve all the credit you can give them, in fact the band of directors and management would like you to publicly thank the boys for their stay at Lindsay Exhibition that they had at many of the larger centres."

By the way, has a Class "A" rating.

Local exhibitors

Mr. Wilson said exhibitors seemed well pleased with the way they were treated and one after another called at the office to say how much they appreciated it.

Minister notices

Rev. P. C. Reed, walking round the grounds on Saturday afternoon, said: "Why this fair is growing, I can remember when this space (agricultural implements) was open land during the fair."

Livestock tops all

The livestock entries this year topped everything else. To the manager declared, "We had big breeders, men who generally only show at the fair, and they had more enquiries for breeding stock during their stay at Lindsay Exhibition than they had at many of the larger centres."

In the name of Christ...

A great work is being carried on

Visitors to the Lindsay Fair had an unusual opportunity of meeting and listening to three of the greatest religious visionaries in the world, who are engaged in a missionary work in west Africa. Professor Chong, a professor of Theology in the theological college in South Korea, and Mr. Samuel Page of Trinidade. These visitors who are touring various parts of Canada on behalf of the Board of Overseas Missions of the United Church of Canada, were the guests of the Lindsay Presbytery of the United Church of Canada and the Lindsay Fair.

Mrs. Collins had a most interesting story to tell of the change that is taking place in the lives of the people of the fine work carried on for years by the Missionaries, in Dondi, Chisamboni and Cameroons. The Africans are religious work only, but large hospitals have been established in Dondi, Chisamboni and Cameroons. The Africans are being educated as doctors and nurses and great progress is being made in the leprosy, Lepers, Tubercular patients and victims of malaria and diseases are being helped in the hospitals. In addition the Africans are being advised in better methods of agriculture, improved soil treatment, seed selection, rotation of crops are given special attention. The production of more food crops is encouraged and the raising of dairy cows to provide milk for the people is promoted. Mrs. Collins emphasized that as a result of the missionaries' activity in the hospitals, the life of the people is being changed and the old which doctor is being replaced by the new life of the people.
